From Saturday September 1, to Tuesday September 4, 1759.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1759,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the 11th of July last, to declare and order, (amongst other Things) That all such of His faithful Subjects, who should from and after that Time enlist themselves as Soldiers in His Land Service, should not be sent out of Great Britain, and should be intitled to their Discharge in three Years, or at the End of the War, if they should chuse it; — His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby most graciously repeat and confirm the same, with relation to such as shall hereafter enlist on those Conditions; as also to such as have been enlisted in any Corps from the 11th of July last to this Day — But whereas Doubts have arisen with Respect to the Extent and Meaning of His Majesty's said Order, — His Majesty in Council doth therefore hereby declare, That the Conditions therein contained are not meant or intended to extend to such who shall enlist themselves in Great Britain, to serve in Regiments Abroad, whether Ireland or elsewhere, or to such who may chuse to enlist in any of His Majesty's Corps in the usual Manner, without Limitation of Time or Place of Service.

W. Sharpe.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 10th Day of August, 1759,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the Fifteenth of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen, and Able bodied Landmen, to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted, and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all straggling Seamen", was, by Order in Council of the 26th of June last, prolonged and extended from the 3d of July, to the 18th of this Instant August — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, that the Time limited by the said Order in Council, be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 18th Day of this Instant August, to the 29th Day of September next, and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 29th Day of September next: — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

Saville-House, Sept. 2.

This Day Signior Celestia, Minister charged with the Affairs of the Republick of Genoa, had his Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

And afterwards of her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales at Leicester-House.

To both which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Treasury Chambers, August 7, 1759.

WHEREAS notwithstanding the several Acts of Parliament now in Force for preventing illegal Lotteries, and the several Convictions of Offenders in pursuance thereof, Information has been lately given to the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that there is now on Foot in Ireland a Scheme for raising a Sum of Money by the Sale of Tickets or Chances to be determined by the Drawing of the present State Lottery, and that the said Scheme is handed about this Town

[Price Three-Pence.]

Town and other Parts of this Kingdom, and that Tickets or Chances agreeable thereunto are offered to Sale in Defiance and Contempt of the several Acts of Parliament for prohibiting the same; Therefore, in order to put a Stop to such unlawful Proceedings, and to prevent the Ignorant and Unwary from being drawn in by so illegal and pernicious a Practice; This is to inform the Public, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have given Directions to their Solicitor to prosecute with the utmost Rigour and Severity of the Law all such as shall be anyways concerned in publishing such Schemes, or buying or selling any such Tickets or Chances. And whereas Mr. John M'Carrick and Mr. Henry Lunn, late of the City of London, were on the 8th of March 1757, convicted of the like Offence, and have ever since absconded in order to avoid the Penalties thereby incurred: Therefore the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury are hereby pleased to offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to be paid to any Person or Persons that shall apprehend either of them, on immediate Notice thereof being given to Philip Carteret Webb, Esq; their Solicitor.

G L Y N, Mayor.

A Common Council holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Tuesday the 14th Day of August, 1759, and in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Second, King of Great Britain, &c.

Resolved and Ordered,
THAT a Subscription be forthwith opened in the Chamber of London for an immediate voluntary Contribution, to be paid into the said Chamber, and distributed in Bounties or Rewards among such able bodied Landmen as within the Time or Times to be limited for that Purpose shall present themselves, and be enlisted at the Guildhall of this City, to serve as Soldiers in His Majesty's Forces, upon the Terms graciously offered by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Eleventh Day of July last, as explained and confirmed by that of the Tenth Instant: The Purposes of the said Subscription to be executed by a Committee of this Court, as they in their Discretion shall, from Time to Time, judge most expedient for His Majesty's Service.

Resolved and Ordered,
 That the Chamberlain of this City do subscribe the Sum of One Thousand Pounds on Behalf of this City, and that he place that Sum out of this City's Cash, to the Credit of the said Subscription.

Resolved and Ordered,
 That for a farther Encouragement to able Men to enlist as afore said at the Guildhall of this City, and to serve their King and Country with Zeal, and due Submission to Military Discipline, during the Continuance of the present War, every Soldier so enlisted, who shall not have deserted, and who, after the Expiration of his Service, shall produce to the Chamberlain of this City a Testimonial of his good Behaviour, under the Hand of a Field Officer, shall, thereupon, be immediately admitted by the said Chamberlain, without Fee or Reward, to the Privilege of Setting-up and Exercising such Trade within the said City and Liberties thereof, as he is apt and able for.

Resolved and Ordered,
 That the Town Clerk do attend the said Committee, and give to every Person who shall be enlisted in Consequence of the above Resolutions, a Certificate thereof, under his Hand, without Fee or Reward.

Hodges.

G L Y N, Mayor.

A Common Council holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Friday the 17th Day of August, 1759.

Resolved and Ordered,
 That if after the Service intended to be promoted by the Subscription now opened in the Chamber of London shall be fully answered, there shall be any Surplus of the Subscription Money left in the Chamberlain's Hands, the same be forthwith returned to the several Subscribers, or their legal Representatives, in Proportion to the Sums by them respectively subscribed.

Hodges.

N. B. The Subscription Book will lie open at the Chamberlain's Office at Guildhall, every Day (Sundays and Holidays excepted) from Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, 'till Two in the Afternoon.

Admiralty-Office, September 7, 1759.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Boscawen to Mr. Cleveland, Secretary of the Admiralty, dated Namur, off Cape St. Vincent, August 20, 1759, and brought last Night by Captain Buckle, of the said Ship.

I Acquainted you in my last of my Return to Gibraltar to refit. As soon as the Ships were near ready, I ordered the Lyme and Gibraltar (the only Frigates ready) the first to cruize off Malaga, and the last from Estepona, to Ceuta Point, to look out and give me timely Notice of the Enemy's Approach.

On the 17th, at Eight in the Evening, the Gibraltar made the Signal of their Appearance; Fourteen Sail on the Barbary Shore to the Eastward of Ceuta. I got under Sail as fast as possible, and was out of the Bay before Ten, with Fourteen Sail of the Line, the Shannon, and Aetna Fireship. At Day-light I saw the Gibraltar, and soon after Seven Sail of large Ships lying to; but on our not answering their Signal, they made Sail from us. We had a fresh Gale, and came up with them fast, 'till about Noon, when it fell little Wind. About half an Hour past Two, some of the headmost Ships began to engage; but I could not get up to the Ocean till near Four. In about half an Hour, the Namur's Mizen-mast and both Top-sail-Yards were shot away: The Enemy then made all the Sail they could. I shifted my Flag to the Newark, and soon after the Centaur of 74 Guns struck. I pursued all Night, and in the Morning of the 19th, saw only four Sail standing in for the Land, (two of the best Sailers having altered their Course in the Night.) We were not above Three Miles from them, and not above five Leagues from the Shore, but very little Wind. About Nine, the Ocean ran amongst the Breakers, and the three others anchored. I sent the Intrepid and America to destroy the Ocean. Capt. Pratten having anchored, could not get in; but Capt. Kirke performed that Service alone. On his first firing at the Ocean, she struck. Capt. Kirke sent his Officers on board. M. de la Clue having one Leg broke, and the other wounded, had been landed about half an Hour; but they found the Captain, M. Le Comte de Carne, and several Officers and Men on board. Capt. Kirke, after taking them out, finding it impossible to bring the Ship off, set her on Fire. Capt. Bentley, of the Warspight, was ordered against the Temeraire of 74 Guns, and brought her off with little Damage, the Officers and Men all on board. At the same Time Vice-Admiral Brodrick with his Division burnt the Redoutable, her Officers and Men having quitted her, being bulged; and brought the Modeste, of 64 Guns, off very little damaged.

I have the Pleasure to acquaint their Lordships, that most of His Majesty's Ships under my Command failed better than those of the Enemy.

Inclosed I send you a List of the French Squadron found on board the Modeste.

Herewith you will also receive the Number of the Killed and Wounded on Board His Majesty's Ships, referring their Lordships for further Particulars to Captain Buckle.
